

The argument that the radiation levels from BPL would not severely impact licensed services using the HF spectrum are clearly specious and misinformed. Field tests have clearly demonstrated that the impact on licensed services will be severe if not catastrophic. There are alternatives to BPL that do not have such an impact and it would not be in the public interest for the FCC to approve any use of the spectrum that would cause such widespread interference to licensed services as that which would be caused by BPL.